

AWARDS

The Jury of the 3rd International Film Festival on Human Rights, composed of:

Shirin Ebadi, president of the jury, Nobel Peace Prize 2003

Danielle Arbid, filmmaker, Lebanon

Ariel Dorfman, writer and screenwriter, Chile

William Hurt, actor, the USA

Hubert Nyssen, founder of publishing company "Actes Sud"

Have awarded the following prizes:

THE SERGIO VIEIRA DE MELLO PRIZE is awarded to:

MIGUEL : NE TERREN

By Enric Miró and Luis Jené

The portrait of a journalist who knew how to take pictures and offer a hand. This is why he was an exceptional person.

THE WORLD ORGANISATION AGAINST TORTURE (OMCT) PRIZE is awarded to

JOURNEYS

By Virayan Kodoth

An unexpected glimpse into the daily transhumance of workers living in a big city of the world.

DISTINCTIONS:

LIBERIA: AN UNCIVIL WAR

By Jonathan Stack

And:

SHAMED

By Jane Corbin

For these accounts showing the worst side of human nature in our time.

The junior Jury composed of:

Andras Barta, Rebecca Bowring, Zara Idelson, Julien Lombard and Pierre-Antoine Possa

Have awarded THE JUNIOR JURY PRIZE, offered by La Liberté, to

MIGUEL : NE TERREN

By Enric Miró and Luis Jené

As, in spite of the tragedy that pushed the film to be made, it brings hope. Through the accounts and images of this cameraman we are able to touch the reality of a job that is often neglected.

SPECIAL DISTINCTION:

L'ACCORD

By Nicolas Wadimoff and Béatrice Guelpa

AWARDS – COMPETITION OF FREE EXPRESSION
« TELL ME ABOUT HUMAN RIGHTS »

Prize for the best drawing, Junior High School section (12 to 15):

to Thomas ROMAILLER
dvd The Village

Prize for the best film, Junior High School section :

To Class 911B from « Cycle du Renard » school
Cinema tickets

Prize for the best poster, High School section (15 to 19):

Alban SOMMER for his poster «Terrorisme pour les Nuls»
dvd The Village

Artistic distinction for his animation video, High School section:

Rémi BERGEAL for his video «Rolo Tomasi»
dvd The Village

Special distinction from the Jury, High School section, to :

Mélodie CABRINI for her video «11 septembre»
dvd The Village

Prize for the best music video, High School section :

Paolo SPERA for his video «Mais»
Amos Gitai DVD box

First Prize, all sections to :

Samy KERKENI for his film « La Solitude »
Amos Gitai DVD box and an internship in a production company